

Impressive meeting space in the heart of Amsterdam

For meetings, presentations, events, workshops and dinners

Nieuwe Keizersgracht 570
1018 VG Amsterdam
www.luthermuseum.nl

The Luther Museum Amsterdam is located on the Nieuwe Keizersgracht, in the Wittenberg building, named after the city in which Maarten Luther started the Reformation in 1517. The building, established in 1772, has a rich history and played a big role as a shelter for the elderly, the poor and orphans. With its imposing regent rooms and the 'Kerkzaal', Luther Museum Amsterdam is an exciting location for meetings, events, and presentations. Feel free to come over!

Facilities

There's WiFi available in all rooms, and a big, movable video screen (75 inch with HDMI connection) for presentations and film screenings. The Kerkzaal is equipped with two microphones.

Food and drinks

We can provide you with various catering arrangements. Please let us know your wishes and we'll make you an offer.

Regent rooms

Adjacent to the garden, the historical regent rooms are situated. The most prominent one of 37m<sup>2</sup> breathes the atmosphere of conferencing for centuries. Please let us know any wishes, we are happy to take every type of meeting to the next level.

- Lunch: suitable for 10 to 12 persons
- Dinner: suitable for 10 to 12 persons
- Meetings: suitable for 10 to 12 persons

Kerkzaal

The 'Kerkzaal' is a grand, impressive space of 168m<sup>2</sup>, with a breath-taking view of the canals, and the building's patio. The Kerkzaal is suitable for meetings, presentations, workshops and dinners. The room provides a variety of settings, suitable for every occasion.

- Theatre setting: suitable for 50 to 100 persons
- U-shape: suitable for groups up to 40 persons
- Board room: suitable for groups up to 28 persons
- Dinner: suitable for groups up to 90 persons
- Reception: suitable for groups up to 120 persons

